IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MARYLAND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Jonathan Wall

Defendant.

Criminal Action No. SAG-19-00500-11

REGULAR SENTENCING ORDER

(1) On or before Wednesday, June 15, 2022 (not more than 40 days from the date of this order), the Probation Officer shall provide the initial draft of the presentence report to counsel for the Defendant for review with the Defendant. If the Defendant is in pretrial detention, defense counsel may not provide a copy of the recommendations section of the presentence report to the Defendant in advance of meeting to review the presentence report, and may not leave the recommendations section of the presentence report with the Defendant once the review has taken place. The Probation Officer shall also provide the initial draft of the presentence report to counsel for the Government.

(2) On or before Wednesday, June 29, 2022 (not less than 14 days from date in paragraph 1), counsel shall submit, in writing, to the Probation Officer and opposing counsel, any objections to any material information, sentencing classifications, advisory sentencing guideline ranges, or policy statements contained in or omitted from the report.

(3) After receiving counsel's objections, the Probation Officer shall conduct any necessary further investigation and may require counsel for both parties to meet with the Probation Officer to discuss unresolved factual and legal issues. The Probation Officer shall make any revisions to the presentence report deemed proper, and, in the event that any objections made by counsel remain unresolved, the Probation Officer shall prepare an addendum setting forth those objections and any comment thereon.

(4) On or before Monday, July 11, 2022 (not less than 11 days from date in paragraph 2), the Probation Officer shall file the report (and any revisions and addendum thereto) through CM/ECF.

(5) If counsel for either party intends to call any witnesses at the sentencing hearing, counsel shall submit, in writing, to the Court and opposing counsel, on or before

To be determined (not less than 14 days before sentencing), a statement containing (a) the names of the witnesses, (b) a synopsis of their anticipated testimony, and (c) an estimate of the anticipated length of the hearing.

(6) Sentencing memoranda are not required unless a party intends to request a sentence outside the advisory guidelines range on the basis of a non-guideline factor. If submitted, they shall be filed with the Clerk and a copy delivered to chambers on or before To be determined (not less than 14 days before sentencing). Copies of all memoranda must be sent to the Probation Officer. Sentencing memoranda are not sealed documents. If the memoranda or attachments contain sensitive material, they should be filed under seal and accompanied by a motion to seal.

(7) Any motions relating to sentencing, including motions for a continuance, shall be filed and delivered to chambers on or before To be determined (14 days before sentencing). No motions for a continuance filed after this deadline will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances. Any responses to motions shall be filed on or before To be determined (7 days before sentencing). No reply memoranda shall be filed.

(8) If the Government intends to seek restitution, a memorandum requesting restitution and all supporting documentation shall be filed on or before To be determined (not less than 14 days before sentencing). Failure to provide the restitution information or an explanation for why the restitution information is not yet ascertainable by this date may result in an order to show cause why the information could not have been timely provided and may result in the Court denying or delaying restitution until after a hearing not to exceed 90 days after sentencing.

(9) Any other written materials relating to sentencing, including but not limited to letters or statements by the defendant, family members, victims, or others, shall be delivered to chambers no later than To be determined (7 days before sentencing).

(10) If either party intends to seek a change in the defendant's release status at sentencing, including requiring the defendant to be taken into custody immediately following sentencing, that party shall inform the Court, opposing counsel and the Pretrial Services Officer on or before To be determined (3 days before sentencing). Failure to do so may result in denial of the requested change.

(11) Sentencing shall be on a date to be determined.

(12) The presentence report, any revisions, and any proposed findings made by the Probation Officer in the addendum to the report shall constitute the tentative findings of the Court under section 6A1.3 of the sentencing guidelines. In resolving disputed issues of fact, the Court may consider any reliable information presented by the Probation Officer, the Defendant, or the Government, and the Court may issue its own tentative or final findings at any time before or during the sentencing hearing.

(13) Nothing in this Order requires the disclosure of any portions of the presentence report that are not disclosable under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.
